Collin Humphrey Earns Top Honor at the 2019 Annual Riedman Foundation Trout Derby

Dan Ortiz, Megan Rinaudo, Kristina Dengler and John Pitton of Bank of America present 6-year-old Collin Humphrey with the Bank of America Angler Award.

It was a snowy and cold morning and then the sun came out in Powder Mills Park, where 6-year-old Collin Humphrey of Scottsville reeled in a 10.89-pound, 27 1/4-inch brown trout to earn the top prize—the Bank of America Angler Award—at the Annual Riedman Foundation Trout Derby on April 1, 2019.

In total, more than 350 participated in the 2019 Derby, which benefits the Fish Hatchery at Powder Mills Park.

The derby recognized nine additional anglers in three age categories:

Adult (age 16 and older) prize winners:

Jack Kleinman, age 17, of Rochester, reeled in a 7.53-pound, 24-inch brown trout securing first place.

Christian Burkhardt, age 17, of Rochester, placed second with a 4.38-pound, 19.5-inch brown trout.

Doug Scharett, age 43, took third place with a 3.63-pound, 18.25-inch brown trout.

Winners in the age nine to 15 category:

Gavin Murray, age 9, of Webster, reeled in a 3.28-pound, 21.75-inch steelhead securing first place.

Neil Nayyar, age 14, of Rochester, placed second with a 2.71-pound, 21-inch steelhead.

Joseph Caulkins, age 14, of Farmington, took third place with a 1.41-pound, 14.50-inch brown trout.

Winners in the age eight and younger category:

Alex Cirilla, age 6, of Penfield reeled in a 2.05 pound, 16.5-inch brown trout for first place.

Hunter Grant, age 4, of Rochester, placed second with a .50-pound, 10.25-inch brown trout.

Evan Oldenburg, age 8 of Rochester, reeled in a 0.48 pound, 10.50-inch brown trout, securing third place.
